Methodology

The "Direct Comparison" approach is considered the most appropriate method of valuation in this instance whereby the valuer has duly considered the particular features of the subject property against the rental evidence having particular regard to the quality and extent of accommodation, location, age, general condition, construction type, date of the transaction and where appropriate building and land areas. The valuer has then provided an overall comparison between the subject property and the rental evidence in order to determine the market rental value as at the date of valuation.

I certify that I have assessed the subject property as described in this Certificate and I consider that an anticipated market rental value as at 31 December, 2015 (exclusive of GST) of the land and improvements as assessed, would be the sum of:

$370 pw
(Three Hundred and Seventy dollars per week)

This rental valuation is for the use only of the party to whom it is addressed, and for no other purpose. No responsibility is accepted to any third party who may use or rely on the whole of any part of the content of this Rental Valuation.

This valuation is current as at the Date of Valuation only. The value assessed herein may change significantly and unexpectedly over a relatively short period (including as a result of general market movements or factors specific to the particular property). We do not accept liability for losses arising from such subsequent changes in value. Without limiting the generality of the above comment, we do not assume any responsibility or accept any liability where this valuation is relied upon after the expiration of 90 days from the date of the valuation, or such earlier date if you become aware of any factors that have any effect on the valuation. We recommend the valuation be reviewed at regular intervals.

Methodology	The "Direct Comparison" approach is considered the most appropriate method of valuation in this instance whereby the valuer has duly considered the particular features of the subject property against the available evidence having particular regard to the quality and extent of accommodation, location, age, general condition, construction type, date of the transaction and where appropriate building and land areas. The valuer has then provided an overall comparison between the subject property and the evidence in order to determine the market value as at the date of valuation.

FOI Documents FOI 2021-20

I certify that I have assessed the subject property as described in this Certificate and I consider that an anticipated market rental value as at 31 December, 2018 (exclusive of GST) of the land and improvements as assessed, would be the sum of:

$380 pw
(Three Hundred and Eighty dollars per week)

This rental valuation is for the use only of the party to whom it is addressed, and for no other purpose. No responsibility is accepted to any third party who may use or rely on the whole or any part of the content of this Rental Valuation.

This valuation is current as at the Date of Valuation only. The value assessed herein may change significantly and unexpectedly over a relatively short period (including as a result of general market movements or factors specific to the particular property). We do not accept liability for losses arising from such subsequent changes in value. Without limiting the generality of the above comment, we do not assume any responsibility or accept any liability where this valuation is relied upon after the expiration of 90 days from the date of the valuation, or such earlier date if you become aware of any factors that have any effect on the valuation. We recommend the valuation be reviewed at regular intervals.
