1.2. Interpretation

1.2.1. In this Contract, unless the contrary intention appears:

- a. words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular;

- b. clause headings are for convenient reference only and have no effect in limiting or extending the language of provisions to which they refer;
- c. a reference to dollars is a reference to Australian dollars;
- d. a reference to any legislation or legislative provision includes any statutory modification, substitution or re-enactment of that legislation or legislative provision;
- e. if any word or phrase is given a defined meaning, any other part of speech or other grammatical form of that word or phrase has a corresponding meaning;
- f. the Schedules and any attachments form part of this Contract;
- g. if any conflict arises between the terms and conditions contained in the clauses of this Contract and any part of the Schedules (including any attachments), the terms and conditions of the clauses prevail;
- h. a reference to writing is a reference to any representation of words, figures or symbols, whether or not in a visible form; and
- i. words or phrases used in this Contract and defined in the Lease (and not otherwise defined in this Contract) have the same meaning as they have in the Lease.

1.3. Guidance on construction of Contract

- 1.3.1. This Contract and the Lease records the entire agreement between the parties in relation to its subject matter.
- 1.3.2. A provision of this Contract will not be construed to the disadvantage of a party solely on the basis that it proposed that provision.

1.4. Commencement and expiry

- 1.4.1. The terms of this Contract:
 - a. apply on and from the Commencement Date; and
 - b. expire on the Terminating Date or any earlier termination of the Lease, (the Term).

2. References to DHA in this Contract

- 2.1.1. The parties acknowledge that:
 - a. the Property Care Provider and the Tenant are the same entity;
 - b. DHA acts in 2 different capacities, namely as the Property Care Provider under this Contract and as the Tenant under the Lease; and
 - c. DHA will be referred to in this Contract by either the name "Property Care Provider" or "Tenant" (as appropriate) to clarify the relevant capacity in which DHA is acting.

3. Relationship between the Lease and this Contract

- 3.1.1. The parties agree that it is an essential term of this Contract that the Lease and this Contract run concurrently and end simultaneously to enable DHA to carry out its statutory functions under the DHA Act.

4. Property Care Services

4.1. Property Care Provider not an agent

- 4.1.1. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Property Care Provider is being engaged by the Landlord as a contractor for the provision of services and not as an agent.
- 4.1.2. The Property Care Provider is not by virtue of this Contract an officer, employee, partner or agent of the Landlord, nor does the Property Care Provider have any power or authority to bind or represent the Landlord.

4.2. Performance of Property Care Services

- 4.2.1. The Property Care Provider will perform the Property Care Services in accordance with this Contract.

4.3. Responsibility for Landlord's other obligations under the Lease

- 4.3.1. Subject to the terms of this Contract, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Landlord retains full responsibility for, and will bear all costs in relation to, all of the Landlord's obligations and liabilities under the Lease.

5. Service Fees

- 5.1.1. In consideration of the Property Care Provider performing the Property Care Services, the Landlord will pay, or will procure the payment of, the Service Fees to the Property Care Provider.
- 5.1.2. In addition to the Service Fees, the Landlord will pay to the Property Care Provider all costs, expenses or disbursements incurred by the Property Care Provider in performing the Property Care Services as specified in Schedule 2, within 10 Business Days from the date of the invoice issued by the Property Care Provider.

6. Taxes, duties and government charges

- 6.1.1. Unless otherwise indicated, the fees and all other consideration for any supply made under this Contract is exclusive of any GST imposed on the supply.
- 6.1.2. If one party (the supplier) makes a taxable supply to the other party (the recipient) under this Contract, on receipt of a tax invoice from the supplier, the recipient will pay without setoff an additional amount to the supplier equal to the GST imposed on the supply in question.

- 6.1.3. No party may claim or retain from the other party any amount in relation to a supply made under this Contract for which the first party can obtain an input tax credit or decreasing adjustment.

7. Insurance

7.1. By Property Care Provider

- 7.1.1. The Property Care Provider will maintain, during the Lease Term (including any holdover period):
- a. workers compensation insurance as required by law; and
 - b. public liability insurance or indemnification with Comcover or other reputable insurance company to cover its public liability exposure in respect of the Premises (whether or not the policy also covers other properties) for at least $10,000,000 per occurrence.
- 7.1.2. Where the Property Care Provider engages a contractor to carry out work at the Premises, the Property Care Provider will ensure that the contractor holds the necessary insurances to cover the performance of that work, including public liability insurance and (where appropriate) construction works insurance.

7.2. By Landlord

- 7.2.1. The Landlord must take out and maintain, at its cost, all insurances required to be taken out and maintained by the Landlord under the Lease.
- 7.2.2. The Landlord acknowledges and agrees that there may be occasions where the Property Care Provider will require the Landlord to make a claim under the Landlord's insurance policies, including in instances where:
- a. the Property Care Provider has incurred costs or expenses on behalf of the Landlord in carrying out urgent repairs; and
 - b. the Property Care Provider's own insurance policies do not respond to a particular event.
- 7.2.3. The Landlord must provide evidence of the currency of its insurance policies to the Property Care Provider within 7 Business Days of a request in writing by the Property Care Provider.
- 7.2.4. The Landlord agrees to notify the Property Care Provider promptly if any of the insurances required by this clause lapse or become void, voidable or otherwise unenforceable.

8. Indemnity

- 8.1.1. The Landlord indemnifies, and will keep indemnified, the Property Care Provider from and against any:
- a. cost, expense or liability incurred by the Property Care Provider;
 - b. loss of or damage to property of the Property Care Provider; and

- c. loss or expense incurred by the Property Care Provider in dealing with any actions, suits, proceedings and claims against it, including legal costs and expenses on a solicitor/own client basis and consultant's costs, arising in connection with:

- d. the proper performance by the Property Care Provider of the Property Care Services;
 - e. a breach by the Landlord of this Contract;
 - f. the exercise or purported or attempted exercise by the Property Care Provider of its rights under this Contract;
 - g. the Property Care Provider obtaining or attempting to obtain payment of money payable by the Landlord to the Property Care Provider under this Contract; or
 - h. an act or omission involving fault on the part of the Landlord in connection with this Contract.
- 8.1.2. The Landlord's liability to indemnify the Property Care Provider under clause 8.1.1 will be reduced proportionately to the extent that any act or omission involving fault on the part of the Property Care Provider or its Personnel contributed to the relevant cost, liability, loss, damage or expense.
- 8.1.3. The right of the Property Care Provider to be indemnified under this clause 8 (Indemnity) is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other right, power or remedy provided by law or in equity, but the Property Care Provider is not entitled to be compensated in excess of the amount of the relevant cost, liability, loss, damage or expense.

9. Mid-Lease Sale

9.1. Limits on advertising for privacy reasons

- 9.1.1. To the extent permitted by law, for privacy and confidentiality reasons and to protect the occupants of the Premises, the Landlord agrees that, in the event the Landlord wishes to sell the Premises, the Landlord will not (and will ensure that its agents and contractors do not):
- a. affix or erect any signage relating to the sale of the Premises on or adjacent to the Premises;
 - b. publish the house number of the Premises; or
 - c. hold auctions on or adjacent to the Premises.

9.2. Deed of Novation

- 9.2.1. The Landlord agrees that, in the event of a Mid-Lease Sale, the Landlord will ensure that any Third Party Purchaser executes a deed of novation of this Property Care Contract:

- a. substantially in the form provided by the Property Care Provider; and
- b. prior to the date on which the transfer of the Lease to the Third Party Purchaser takes place.

9.2.2. The:

- a. Landlord and the Property Care Provider will bear their own costs; and
- b. Landlord will bear, or will ensure that the Third Party Purchaser bears, the costs of the Third Party Purchaser, of complying with this clause 9 (Mid-Lease Sale).

9.3. Payment of amounts owing to the Property Care Provider

9.3.1. The Landlord agrees that, on or before settlement or completion of any Mid-Lease Sale, the Landlord will pay to the Property Care Provider any amounts owing to the Property Care Provider, or which will become owing to the Property Care Provider prior to the date of settlement, under this Property Care Contract, including:

- a. any outstanding Service Fees; and
- b. all fees for any Additional Services carried out by the Property Care Provider in accordance with Schedule 2.

10. Force majeure

10.1. Definition

10.1.1. In this Contract, 'Force Majeure Event' means any event or occurrence, whether known or unknown at the date of the Contract, that:

- a. prevents, hinders or delays the Property Care Provider from performing its obligations under this Contract;
- b. is beyond the reasonable control of the Property Care Provider; and
- c. the Property Care Provider could not have prevented, or limited the effect of, by taking those steps which a prudent, experienced and reasonable person in the circumstances of the Property Care Provider would have taken.

10.2. Notice of Force Majeure Event

10.2.1. Where a Force Majeure Event occurs, the Property Care Provider may give the Landlord prompt written notice (Notice) of the Force Majeure Event specifying in reasonable detail:

- a. the nature of, reasons for, and estimated duration of the Force Majeure Event;
- b. the obligations affected and the extent of the Force Majeure Event's effect on the ability of Property Care Provider to comply with those obligations under the Contract, including the provision of the Property Care Services; and

- c. the steps required to address or mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure Event.

10.3. Effect of giving Force Majeure Event Notice

10.3.1. Where a Notice is issued under clause 10.2:

- a. the obligations of the Property Care Provider specified in the Notice are suspended from the date of the Notice for so long as, and to the extent, they are affected by the Force Majeure Event (Force Majeure Period); and
- b. no failure or omission by the Property Care Provider to perform such obligations will be a breach of this Contract in so far as the failure or omission is caused by the Force Majeure Event, subject to the Property Care Provider otherwise complying with the requirements of this clause 10.

10.4. Actions by Property Care Provider

10.4.1. Following the issue of a Notice under clause 10.2 and during the Force Majeure Period, the Property Care Provider must:

- a. use its reasonable endeavours to remove, overcome or minimise the effects of that Force Majeure Event as quickly as possible;
- b. unless otherwise advised by the Landlord, give updates to the Landlord on the status of matters referred to in clause 10.2 when reasonably practicable and in any case, within 14 days after written request is received from the Landlord; and
- c. notify the Landlord in writing as soon as the Force Majeure Period ceases.

10.4.2. If a Notice under clause 10.4.1.c is issued, the Property Care Provider must as soon as reasonably possible resume performance of any suspended obligation.

10.5. Reduction in Service Fees

10.5.1. During the Force Majeure Period, the Service Fees will be reduced in proportion to the Property Care Services provided by the Property Care Provider.

10.6. No limitation

10.6.1. Nothing in this clause limits the parties' rights under this Contract.

11. Dispute resolution

11.1. Definitions

11.1.1. In this clause 11 (Dispute resolution):

Expert means an appropriate practising professional appointed at the request of either party by:

- a. the chairperson for the time being of the Resolution Institute ABN 69 008 651 232 in the Relevant Jurisdiction; or
- b. if there is no such body in existence at the time of the request, the chairperson for the time being of an equivalent body.

11.2. Procedure for dispute resolution

11.2.1. Subject to paragraph 7 of Schedule 2, the parties agree that a dispute arising under this Contract must be dealt with as follows:

- a. the party claiming that there is a dispute agrees to give the other party a notice setting out the nature of the dispute;
- b. within 5 Business Days (or such other period as agreed by the parties in writing) each party agrees to nominate a representative;
- c. within 10 Business Days of receiving a notice under clause 11.2.1a (or such other period as agreed by the parties in writing), the representatives will try to settle the dispute by direct negotiation between them;
- d. failing settlement of the dispute within a further 15 Business Days following the direct negotiation (or such other period as agreed by the parties in writing), or failure of one or both parties to nominate a representative within the period set out in clause 11.2.1.b, the parties may agree that the dispute may be referred by either party for determination by an Expert and in that event clause 11.3 (Expert determination) applies; and
- e. if the parties have been unable to agree to refer the dispute to an Expert either party may commence legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

11.3. Expert determination

11.3.1. If an Expert is appointed by the parties in accordance with clause 11.2.1.d, each party may make a submission either orally or in writing to the Expert within 10 Business Days after the date of appointment of the Expert.

11.3.2. In making a determination, the Expert will:

- a. act as an expert and not as an arbitrator;
- b. consider any submission made by a party; and

- c. provide the parties with a written statement of reasons for the determination.

11.3.3. Subject to clause 11.6 (Exemption), to the extent permitted by law, the determination of the Expert will be conclusive and binding on the parties.

11.3.4. The costs of the Expert will be shared equally between the parties.

11.3.5. If the Expert fails to deliver a determination within 20 Business Days after the date of appointment, either party may commence legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

11.4. Costs

11.4.1. Subject to any award of costs made by an Expert or a court, each party will bear its own costs of complying with this clause 11 (Dispute resolution).

11.5. Continued performance

11.5.1. Despite the existence of a dispute, the Property Care Provider will (unless requested in writing by the Landlord, acting reasonably, not to do so) continue to perform the Property Care Services where it is reasonably able to do so.

11.6. Exemption

11.6.1. This clause 11 (Dispute resolution) does not apply to:

- a. action by either party under or purportedly under clause 12.2 (Termination for fault);
- b. a dispute which involves the question of whether the dispute should properly be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions of the Lease or this Contract;
- c. a dispute which involves the interpretation of federal legislation such as the DHA Act; or
- d. legal proceedings by either party seeking urgent interlocutory relief.

12. Termination of Contract

12.1. Automatic termination if Lease terminates

12.1.1. The parties agree that this Contract will terminate with immediate effect, and without either party being required to take any action, upon the expiry or earlier termination of the Lease.

12.1.2. In the event of termination under clause 12.1.1, the Landlord will be liable to:

- a. pay any Service Fees relating to Property Care Services completed before the effective date of termination; and
- b. to reimburse any expenses the Property Care Provider unavoidably incurs relating entirely to Property Care Services not covered under clause 12.1.2a, and must pay these to the Property Care Provider within 10 Business Days of termination.

12.2. Termination for fault

12.2.1. If a party fails to satisfy any of its obligations under this Contract, then the other party - if it considers that the failure is:

- a. not capable of remedy - may, by notice, terminate the Contract immediately; or
- b. capable of remedy - may, by notice require that the failure be remedied within the time specified in the notice and, if not remedied within that time, may terminate the Contract immediately by giving a second notice.

12.2.2. The Property Care Provider may by notice terminate this Contract immediately if the Landlord:

- a. being a corporation - comes under one of the forms of external administration referred to in chapter 5 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), or has an order made against it for the purpose of placing it under external administration; or
- b. being an individual - becomes bankrupt or enters into a scheme of arrangement with creditors.

12.2.3. Termination of the Contract under this clause 12.2 (Termination for fault) is without prejudice to any prior right of action or remedy which either party has or may have against the other.

12.3. Termination of Lease if Property Care Contract is terminated

12.3.1. Further to clause 3 (Relationship between the Lease and this Contract), the parties acknowledge and agree that if the Property Care Provider terminates this Contract under clause 12.2.1 or clause 12.2.2, the Tenant may terminate the Lease in accordance with the provision of the Relevant Legislation specified in Item 7 of the Contract Particulars by giving up possession of the Premises to the Landlord or by vacating the Premises,

12.3.2. The Landlord is deemed, by entering into this Property Care Contract, to have consented to the termination of the Lease under this clause 12.3 (Termination of Lease if Property Care Contract is terminated) for the purposes of the provision of the Relevant Legislation specified in Item 7 of the Contract Particulars, and this agreement is taken to constitute an agreement in writing to that effect.

12.4. Termination without prejudice

12.4.1. The termination of this Contract is without prejudice to any prior claim or remedy either party has against the other.

13. Notices

13.1. Format, addressing and delivery

- 13.1.1. A notice under this Contract is only effective if it is in writing, and addressed in accordance with the address for service of notices in Item 4 of the Contract Particulars.
- 13.1.2. A notice is to be:
- a. signed by the person giving the notice and delivered by hand; or
 - b. signed by the person giving the notice and sent by pre-paid post; or
 - c. transmitted electronically by the person giving the notice by electronic mail or facsimile transmission.
- 13.1.3. Unless the contrary is proved:
- a. a notice left at an address for service is taken to have been received by the party to whom the address relates when the notice was left at the address;
 - b. a notice sent by post is taken to have been received by the person to whom it was addressed when it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post;
 - c. a notice sent by facsimile is taken to have been received at the place where the facsimile was sent when the sender's facsimile machine produces a transmission report indicating all pages of the notice have been successfully sent; and
 - d. a notice sent by email is taken to have been received by the recipient when the email enters the recipient's email server.

14. General

14.1. Waiver

- 14.1.1. A failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy it holds under this Contract or at law does not operate as a waiver of that right.
- 14.1.2. The exercise or partial exercise by a party of any right or remedy it holds under this Contract or at law does not prevent any other exercise or partial exercise of that right or remedy by the party.

14.2. Variation

- 14.2.1. A variation of this Contract is binding only if agreed in writing and signed by the parties.

14.3. Severability

- 14.3.1. To the extent permitted by law, all provisions of this Contract will, so far as possible, be construed so as not to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect.

- 14.3.2. If any provision of this Contract (or part thereof) is invalid, illegal, or unenforceable:
- a. that provision (or part) will be severed to the extent it is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, and the remaining provisions will continue in force; and
 - b. the parties must do all things reasonably necessary, including the execution and registration of any documentation, to give effect to this Contract.

14.4. Assignment

14.4.1. Subject to clause 14.4.2, neither party can assign their obligations and both parties agree not to assign their rights under this Contract without the other party's prior written approval.

14.4.2. In circumstances where the Premises are sold and the Lease is assigned or novated to a third party:

- a. for the purposes of clause 14.4.1, the parties are taken to have approved an assignment or novation of this Contract by the Landlord to that third party; and
- b. the Landlord agrees to do all things necessary, at its cost, to assign or novate this Contract to the third party (effective at the same time as the assignment or novation of the Lease).

14.5. Survival

14.5.1. Unless the contrary intention appears, the expiry or earlier termination of this Contract will not affect the continued operation of any provision relating to an indemnity or any other provision which expressly or by implication from its nature is intended to continue.

14.6. Counterparts

14.6.1. This Contract may be executed in any number of counterparts and all of those counterparts taken together constitute one and the same instrument.

14.7. Applicable law

14.7.1. This Contract is to be construed in accordance with and any matter related to it is to be governed by the laws of the Relevant Jurisdiction, but nothing in this Contract is to be construed as binding the Property Care Provider to comply with laws that do not apply to it of their own force.

14.7.2. The parties submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Relevant Jurisdiction.

4. Scheduling and Facilitating Services

1.	Carrying out inspections of the Premises as required of the Landlord under the Lease	The Property Care Provider will carry out inspections of the Premises at periodic intervals and provide an inspection report to the Landlord. Without waiving any rights under the Relevant Legislation, due to the unique nature of DHA's occupancy under the Lease, the Landlord elects to keep inspections to a minimum. In addition to the periodic inspections undertaken by the Property Care Provider, if requested by the Landlord (with not less than 10 Business Days' notice), the Property Care Provider will arrange one personal inspection of the Premises by the Landlord or its representative in each year of the Lease Term, provided the Landlord or its representative is accompanied by a representative of the Property Care Provider and complies with any security requirements of DHA (as Tenant).

2.	Facilitating ad hoc inspections requested by the Landlord (including to carry out inspections by insurers) or its contractors or insurers	The Property Care Provider will communicate with the occupant of the Premises to arrange appropriate times for these inspections with the parties involved. The Property Care Provider will not be responsible for carrying out the actual inspections.
3.	Providing statements to the Landlord	The Property Care Provider will provide: a) monthly statements showing the total Rent paid and the Service Fees; and b) statements monthly and annually in DHA's Online Services program.

5. Rent Review Services

The Property Care Provider will carry out Rent Reviews prior to the time for Rent Reviews set out in the Lease, and will provide the Landlord with a recommended amount of Rent for each year of the Lease (which may involve a recommended increase or decrease or a recommendation that there be no change to the Rent of the previous year).

The parties acknowledge and agree that the Property Care Provider carries, and will carry, out the Rent Review Services as a contractor for the Landlord and not as an agent.

Rent Reviews will be carried out by the Property Care Provider in accordance with the following process:

No.	Action to be taken	Party responsible
1.	Prior to the relevant Review Date, the Property Care Provider will obtain a current market rent valuation from a contractor of the Property Care Provider who is a certified practising and registered valuer with the Australian Property Institute or the Australian Valuers Institute in the Relevant Jurisdiction.	Property Care Provider

No.	Action to be taken	Party responsible
2.	The Property Care Provider will notify the Landlord in writing of its assessment of the New Rent Amount based on the current market valuation referred to in No. 1 above.	Property Care Provider
3.	If the Landlord agrees with the New Rent Amount proposed by the Property Care Provider, the Landlord will promptly issue a Landlord's Assessment in writing to the Tenant based on the New Rent Amount proposed by the Property Care Provider and advising the Tenant of the proposed new Rent payable under the Lease, and the date from which it is payable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Landlord (and not the Property Care Provider) will be responsible for issuing any notice of a Rent increase (if applicable) to the Tenant in accordance with the provision of the Relevant Legislation specified in Item 8 of the Contract Particulars.	Landlord
4.	(a) If the Landlord disagrees with the New Rent Amount proposed by the Property Care Provider, the Landlord must notify the Property Care Provider in writing (which may be by electronic form) within 10 Business Days (Landlord Rent Dispute Notice). (b) If the Landlord fails to issue a Landlord Rent Dispute Notice within this 10 Business Day period, the Landlord will be deemed to have accepted the New Rent Amount proposed by the Property Care Provider, in which case No. 3 above will apply. (c) The Landlord must within 15 Business Days after issuing a Landlord Rent Dispute Notice, at its cost: (i) procure a valuer who is a certified practising and registered valuer with the Australian Property Institute or the Australian Valuers Institute in the Relevant Jurisdiction (Landlord's Valuer) to assess the appropriate current market rent that will form the basis of the New Rent Amount in accordance with the Landlord's Valuation Guide, and the Landlord will bear all the costs of obtaining the report from the Landlord's Valuer; and (ii) provide a copy of the report of the Landlord's Valuer to the Property Care Provider. (d) The Landlord must if requested by the Property Care Provider, ensure that the Landlord's Valuer confers with the Property Care Provider's valuer to discuss and attempt to agree the New Rent Amount in accordance with the Landlord's Valuation Guide promptly after the	Landlord Landlord Landlord

6. Additional Services

From time to time, the Landlord may request that the Property Care Provider perform additional services that are not already being provided by the Property Care Provider under this Contract and are not an obligation of the Tenant under the Lease (Additional Services).

The Property Care Provider may in its discretion, but is not obliged to, agree in writing with the Landlord the nature and scope of any such Additional Services. The parties agree that nothing in this Contract (or otherwise) limits the ability of the Property Care Provider to decide whether or not to perform any Additional Services and agree the terms on which these will be performed.

If the parties do not agree in writing to the provision of particular Additional Services, the Property Care Provider will not be required to provide those Additional Services.

The Landlord agrees to pay all of the Property Care Provider's expenses (whether incurred in advance or as disbursements) in relation to any agreed Additional Services, within 10 Business Days from the date of the invoice issued by the Property Care Provider.

Where the Additional Services involve the Property Care Provider obtaining a written report in relation to the Premises on behalf of the Landlord (eg obtaining a termite report), the Landlord acknowledges and agrees that the Property Care Provider will have no responsibility for the contents of that report, and has no obligations in relation to the report or its contents, or actioning the report's recommendations, beyond forwarding the report to the Landlord upon receipt of payment.

If the Landlord wishes the Property Care Provider to carry out any repairs or work at the Premises as a result of the contents of any report, the Landlord must agree these repairs or work with the Property Care Provider as a separate Additional Service under this paragraph.

7. Disputes regarding inclusions or exclusions in the Property Care Services

In the event that any dispute arises regarding the scope of the Property Care Services or the proper interpretation of this Schedule 2 (Scope Dispute), the parties agree that, before they commence any dispute resolution process under clause 11 (Dispute Resolution) of the Contract, they will follow the process set out in this paragraph 7 in respect of that Scope Dispute.

	Action to be taken	Party responsible
1.	The disputing party will submit a notice in writing to the other party advising that there is a Scope Dispute and giving details of the nature of the Scope Dispute (Scope Dispute Notice).	Landlord or Property Care Provider (depending on which party has the dispute).
2.	Within 10 Business Days of receiving a Scope Dispute Notice (or such other period as agreed by the parties in writing), the parties will attempt to resolve the Scope Dispute by direct negotiation between their nominated representatives.	Both parties
3.	Failing settlement of the dispute within a further 15 Business Days following the direct negotiation (or such other period as agreed by the parties in writing), either party may refer the dispute to either of the following (the Scope Expert): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a qualified, experienced and reputable tradesperson in the industry or trade in which the Scope Dispute has arisen (or a closely-related industry or trade) as agreed between the parties; or • failing any such agreement, an Expert as defined in clause 11.1.1 of the Contract. 	The party who issued the Scope Dispute Notice.
4.	If a Scope Expert is appointed, each party may make a submission either orally or in writing to the Scope Expert within 10 Business Days after the date of appointment of the Scope Expert.	Both parties

	Action to be taken	Party responsible
5.	In making a determination, the Scope Expert will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • act as an expert and not as an arbitrator; • consider any submission made by a party; and • provide the parties with a written statement of reasons for the determination. 	The Scope Expert
6.	The costs of the Scope Expert will be shared equally between the parties. Each party will bear its own costs of complying with this process.	Both parties
7.	If the Scope Expert fails to deliver a determination within 20 Business Days after the date of appointment or if either party considers that the determination of the Scope Expert does not resolve the Scope Dispute to their satisfaction, that party may commence dispute resolution proceedings under clause 11 (Dispute resolution) of the Contract.	Either party
